

Appendix 1. Alarm symptoms that should indicate the patient to arrange a consultation with a general practitioner

●	Weight loss of unknown etiology
●	Low-grade fever/fever of unknown etiology
●	Diarrhea—prolonged/chronic
●	Occurrence of bleeding of unknown etiology
●	Occurrence of abnormalities in the blood count of unknown etiology (leukopenia/leukocytosis/anemia/thrombocytopenia)
●	Lymphadenopathy and/or hepatosplenomegaly of unknown etiology
●	Pain of unknown etiology